Christmas Lunch

By Christine Knight

Our end of year Christmas celebration at the Doylo with fellow caravan adventurers was a great success. Thank you to members supporting club events. It was lovely to see long standing members there as well as new members who've joined in recent years, all enjoying tales of their travels.

Secret Santa participants all left with smiles and Sandra Lee Sing was very happy to win the caravan service from All About Caravans at Doyalson. Many thanks to this local firm for their generous donation and continued support to our club.

Lucky door prizes donated by Creightons were won by - Robert Wenning and Neville Delaney. We also like to thank them for their ongoing support and donation.

Our roast dinner was delicious with some going back for seconds! The mini Christmas puddings with custard and cream were yummy and the fresh fruit salad was really fresh!

Many thanks to Leonie for compiling a collection of photos from over the years, which were flashed onto the large screen provided by the Doylo club. How lovely it was to recall faces of members who have passed and see some of the shenanigans that have been enjoyed in the past.

However, it was talk of trip plans for next year that was a hot topic at many tables. Come on everyone, thinking caps on, where will we head in 2026? If you haven't put a trip on the board before, ask for help from a committee member and let's go!

Places you might like to Stay

Port Fairy Holiday Park $125.44 3 nights. This was ideal as it was a short walk to town, was the cheapest available and no low cost camps in the vicinity. There are a couple of nice walks and historic sites and art works. A volcanic nature crater not far away and the town of Warrnambool.

Kingston RV Park which is a low cost camp. It is $25 for 2 nights on a large open area just back from the beach. There are really clean facilities in the adjacent park and a dump point. It is close to Cape Jaffa and the town of Robe.

Taillem Bend Football Club which is a low cost short stay camping for $10 per night. A caretaker comes around daily to collect the $10 cash. Was a great overnight stay. You can park anywhere around field. Toilets are cleaned and well looked after. There was a short walk to town.
